Assessing Impact of Tariffs on India

Applied weighted avg tariffs by India (7.7%) and US (2.8%)

Tariffs implemented by the US (now flat 10% for 90 days)

Assessing Impact of Tariffs on India

Well-positioned among emerging markets due to its relatively lower tariffs

Exports constituting a small portion of GDP - less susceptible to global trade disruptions

Global uncertainty - US capital outflow and depreciating dollar

Favourable for India - corrected valuation, lower crude oil prices and RBI monetary easing

US growth slowdown to more than India

Import tariffs on other countries are much higher than India's (26%)

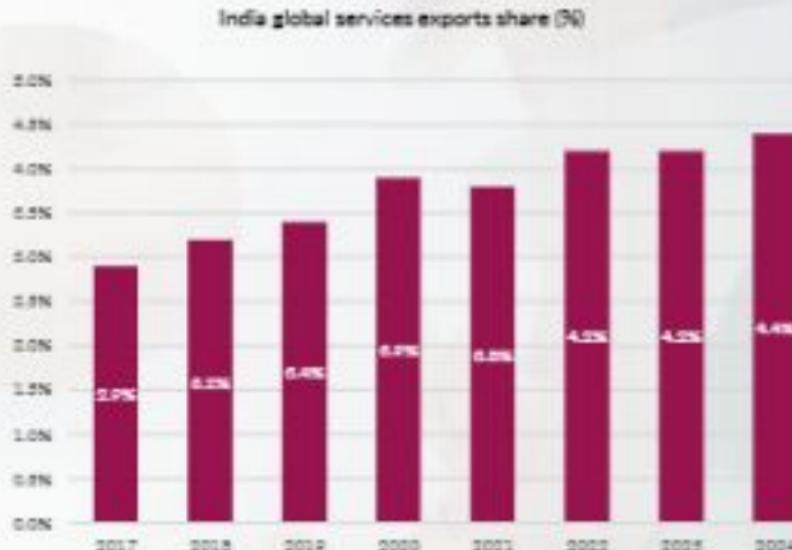

India has a trade surplus in Machinery and Electronics, Chemicals & Pharma, Textiles, Stone & Glass, Metals and Animal Products - highly labour-intensive sectors - US could face difficulties in finding a replacement as India is cost competitive

Service Sector: Huge Opportunity in Exports

Services exports is now close in size with goods exports

India has continued to gain services export market share
